BROKEN HEARTS MINISTRIES

Mrs. Thoibi is a mother of 2 boys and is from a Hindu background. She and her husband were kick out from both their parental home for being a Christian. Unfortunately, after having 2 sons her husband met with an accident and injured his spinal cord that caused his death. Being cut off from their relatives because of their faith in Christ, even the community shun her and have no place to settle. She was mocked and tortured in many ways. She came to this Home with her two sons. Her sons were given free schooling and she stays in the widow's home. She loves the Lord and enrich her spiritual life in the fellowship of the believers. Though she fully did not understand the local dialect she regularly attends church services with joy.
